Child Find Letter

Dear Parent:

There is a possibility that there may be school-aged children in Lea County who are not receiving an education due to unusual learning needs. They may be physically, mentally, emotionally, speech, hearing or visually handicapped. In order to provide appropriate educational programs for these children, they must be located.

Your help is very important in this search for unserved children. If you have or know of an exceptional child, please call us today or fill in the space provided below and return it to school.

The information you provide will remain confidential.
